The Descendants of
THOMAS FOX of CONCORD, MASSACHUSETTS.
Compiled by Colonel Charles B. Fox, of Boston.

This compilation cannot be accepted as entirely correct. While it contains very many valuable facts, Col. Fox has taken much matter from printed genealogies, and town histories, which are often far from being reliable. I have inserted sheets calling attention to some of the errors.

S. M. Fox,
721 Pierre Street,
Manhattan, Kansas.

1. Thomas Fox of Concord, Member of Church 1640, Freeman 1644.
First wife Rebecca died March 11, 1647; children: Mary², and Elizabeth³, twins and Eliphalet⁴. Second wife, Hannah Brooks; children: Hannah⁵, Thomas⁶, Samuel⁷, John⁹, Mary⁸, Isaac¹⁰.
He died Feb. 14, 1658? See ante for his Will probated in Middlesex Nov. 14, 1658? married Hannah Brooks Oct. 13, 1647. A Thomas Fox hired the old Charlestown herd pen in 1640?
2. Mary, twin daughter of Thomas (1) born in Concord July 18, 1642, died Sept. 9, 1642.
3. Elizabeth, twin daughter of Thomas (1) born in Concord July 18, 1642, married John Ball, Jr. of Watertown Oct. 3, 1665; son Joseph born March 12, 1670.
4. Eliphalet, son of Thomas (1) born in Concord was a minor in 1657. Freeman 1690. Married Mary Wheeler Oct. 26, 1665. She died Mar 13 Mary 1686 Dec. 24, 1678. Married Mary, widow of Isaac Hunt and daughter of John Stone, Sept. 30, 1681. She died about 1686. Eliphalet Fox died Aug. 15, 1711. Children: Thomas¹¹, Eliphalet¹², Samuel¹³,
¹⁴ Mary¹⁴, ¹⁵ Joshua¹⁵, ¹⁶ Benoni¹⁶, ¹⁷ John¹⁷, ¹⁸ Nathaniel¹⁸. His will dated two days before his death, proved Nov. 11, 1711, mentions his sons, Samuel, John, Nathaniel and Benoni, and daughter Mary Harwood; appts. his wife Mary Exr. Quere - is Mary's death in 1686 an error or had he a third wife?
5. Hannah, daughter of Thomas (1) born in Charlestown July 23, 1648, (birth is recorded in Concord).
6. Thomas, son of Thomas (1) born in Charlestown Dec. 26, 1649, (birth is recorded in Concord), died 1686.

Corrections.

Mary ² Fox (#8). This is copied from Savage's Genealogical Dictionary, and was supplied him by Miss Caulkins, who compiled the History of New London, Conn. She evidently got her wires crossed.

Investigation shows beyond question, that there was no such daughter Mary. After the death of the first Mary, the name was never repeated in the family. The New London records show that it was Hannah ² Fox (#5) who married Daniel Lester, of New London.

The records in Connecticut show, that after the death of Thomas Fox, of Concord, in 1656, his widow "Hannah"--so designated in the Massachusetts records-- in 1661, married Andrew ¹ Lester, of New London; and removing there she doubtless took, at least most, of her children with her. Samuel and John instead of coming in 1675, as Miss Caulkins says, doubtless were in New London long before, but only became evident in the New London records about the time they reached man's estate.

Hannah Brooks, the second wife of Thomas Fox, of Concord, Mass., is proved to be the daughter of Henry Brooks, of Woburn, Mass.--but previously of Watertown, and Concord. After her second marriage, with Andrew Lester, of New London, and her removal to Connecticut, although called "Hannah" in the records of Concord, etc., in Massachusetts; in Connecticut she is always known as "Ann" or "Anna". Andrew Lester died January 7, 1669-70, and--probably about 1683--she married, third, Isaac (1) Willey, of New London. She died in 1692.

In place of Mary (#8), should be substituted a son David, who doubtless had been living in Woburn with some of his Brooks relatives. He was born about 1656; married at Woburn, Jan. 10, 1678, Lydia Jaquith, No children are recorded. This wife probably died, and before 1694, he was living in Charlestown, in the part now Stoneham, and had married, Mary, the daughter of Samuel Hayward, (sometimes written "Howard"). He had a son, David, born there, Sept. 7, 1694. He had served under Phipps on the Quebec expedition, in 1690, for in 1736, Eleaser (2) Bateman, as his "kinsman", was a claimant for his rights accruing therefrom.

Eliphalet (#12). This is an error. Eliphalet (#12) doubtless died young. This was the third marriage of the father, Eliphalet (#4). This last wife was, Mary, the daughter of Edward Bishop, of Beverly, Mass. She had married before 1670, Robert ² Colburn (Edward ¹), who had died June 7, 1701. She married (3), 1712, Joseph Lee, and (4), 1717, Daniel Hoar.

7. Samuel Fox, son of Thomas (1), born in Concord, married Mary Lester of Gloucester and removed to New London, Conn. 1675; children: Samuel¹⁹, Elizabeth²⁰, and Hannah²¹. He had other wives, viz: 2nd Joanna, 3d Bethesda and 4th Esther, and by some of these, Isaac²⁵, Benjamin²⁴, and another Samuel²⁷ while the first of that name was living, in his will giving bequests to two sons by the name of Samuel. Mary Lester is said to have been born in 1647. His third wife Bethesda was the widow of Richard Smith and daughter of Rogers. Samuel Fox died Sept. 14, 1727, aged 77, at New London.

8. Mary, daughter of Thomas (1) was born in Concord, went to New London, Conn. and married Daniel Lester, and her granddaughter is said to have married her brother John, being 10 years his junior.

9. John Fox, son of Thomas (1) born in Concord, went to New London, Conn. Married 1st Sarah Larabee; 2d Hannah, widow of Thos. Stedman and 3d Mary Lester, said to have been the granddaughter of his sister Mary and 10 years his junior. His children were - John²⁶, Sarah²⁷, Thomas²⁸, Jonathon²⁹, Benjamin³⁰, Hannah³¹, John Fox died in 1730.

10. Isaac Fox, son of Thomas (1) born in Concord Aug. 17, 1617, removed to Medford, married Abigail^{Oskow}; children: John³², Isaac³³, Abigail³⁴, Hannah³⁵, John³⁶, Samuel³⁷, Ebenezer³⁸, Thomas³⁹. He died?
